

BODEGAS Y VIÑEDOS MONTEABELLÓN

VERDEJO 2019

WINE INTRODUCTION

From one of the most noble and native varieties, the Verdejo grape, in the emblematic region of Rueda, which stands out for the excellence of its white wines, Monteabellón Verdejo is born.

WINEMAKER VINTAGE DESCRIPTION

The 2019 harvest benefited from good weather conditions, which have allowed the grape to reach an optimal ripening state and excellent health. Rainfall in winter and spring allowed high production, and the absence of adverse weather conditions have contributed to high quality and volumes. These conditions permitted complete ripening, producing wines that stand out for their great intensity in the mouth.

APPEARANCE, AROMA AND TASTING NOTE

Displays exuberant floral perfumes and primary aromas, typical of the Verdejo variety, which are reminiscent of bananas and some exotic fruits. Adequate acidity gives it freshness and vigour, acquiring an enveloping expressiveness that will develop a wealth of attractive and appetising sensations.
