

SAVIAN ORGANIC LISON CLASSICO DOCG LISON 2020

WINEMAKING NOTE

The appellation “Classico” is added to the name of this marvelous wine due to position of our vineyards, the micro-area recognized to the larger DOCG Lison wine area and because of its particular vocation to this sort of wine cultivation.

WINEMAKER VINTAGE DESCRIPTION

At least for wine, vintage 2020 “will be an excellent vintage” according to how went harvest: mild temperatures, unbearable heat, adequate water supply, cool nights and the absence of heavy hailstorms, have assured strength and health to the vines, from budding to harvest. A good quality of the grapes and in some cases excellent, there is an interesting aromatic picture for the white varieties and medium-high polyphenolic contents in the red berried grapes. There are no phytosanitary problems and the quality of the grapes is good. The sugar content is normal, as is the acidity. Fortunately, the effect of hail was limited and has not interested our area.

APPEARANCE, AROMA AND TASTING NOTE

The fusion of its characteristic pale yellow colour with soft greenish hues, gives a charming and winning harmony in tones, with a lovely glow. This wine amazes the sense of smell with its firm, elegant and slightly fruity bouquet, and in the mouth it is soft, velvety, reminiscent of walnut husk.
