

NINO NEGRI ALPI RETICHE IGT BIANCO 2020

WINE INTRODUCTION

Wine produced in an alpine environment vinified in white from Nebbiolo grapes. The soil's geological origins go back to the time when the African and European plates collided so forming the Alps. The great variety of rock thus caused lends both minerality and elegance to the wine.

WINEMAKING NOTE

The Nebbiolo grapes, picked by hand in crates, are vinified in white with a soft pressing and an immediate separation of the skins to avoid the transfer of colour to the must. The fermentation takes place in temperature-controlled stainless steel tanks at 18° C. Once fermentation is completed, the wine is racked and left on fine lees for some months. This long lysis of the yeasts increases the aromatic complexity while softening the taste and giving succulence on the palate.

APPEARANCE, AROMA AND TASTING NOTE

Straw yellow color with light gold highlights; a delicate but distinct aroma with fragrant notes of green apple, lemon, toasted bread, honey and white fleshy fruit; dry and fresh on the palate, with a pleasant flavoursome mineral finish.
