

SAVIAN ORGANIC CABERNET FRANC DOC VENEZIA 2020

WINEMAKER VINTAGE DESCRIPTION

At least for wine, vintage 2020 “will be an excellent vintage” according to how went harvest: mild temperatures, unbearable heat, adequate water supply, cool nights and the absence of heavy hailstorms, have assured strength and health to the vines, from budding to harvest. A good quality of the grapes and in some cases excellent, there is an interesting aromatic picture for the white varieties and medium-high polyphenolic contents in the red berried grapes. There are no phytosanitary problems and the quality of the grapes is good. The sugar content is normal, as is the acidity. Fortunately, the effect of hail was limited and has not interested our area.

APPEARANCE, AROMA AND TASTING NOTE

It strikes the eye for its intense ruby red color with a tint of purple; its bouquet has a distinct characterisitic and persistent herbaceous note. A full-bodied, generous, well structured, nearly “aristocratic” wine. As it ages the herbaceous note attenuates and its taste becomes elegant, harmonious.
